

CLARENDON HILLS YOUTH THEATRE

INTO THE WOODS JR.

Does your child have a flare for the stage? Performers are invited to spend 6 weeks singing, dancing and acting under the direction of our outstanding theatre staff in preparation for the grand finale performances in July. All the tools necessary for a terrific summer production that the whole family will enjoy are provided! No experience is necessary, just the desire to perform and to be part of a welcoming, all-inclusive atmosphere where your child can shine. Everyone performs and is involved in the production. Auditions are held during the first week of camp. Parents and performers are required to attend the Director's Meeting.

Fee includes: camp t-shirt, choreographer, musical and theatre director and complimentary tickets to the performance.
